Merchant's Exchange.

A meeting of the members of the Merchant's Exchange, was held Thursday afternoon, at half past one o'clock. The President being absent John H. Harris, Esq., Vice President took the Chair.

An investigation of its financial condition of the institution showed it to be slightly in debt, and in consequence of the dull times for the past two months, the interest of the Chamber of Commerce has been seriously neglected, there being no funds in the Treasury to continue for a longer time. It was therefore

Resolved, That a Committee of five—John Harris, R. Chambers, G. W. Knealy, G. Worman and G. M. Young, Esq.—be appointed to solicit subscribers to become members of the Exchange and report next Thursday at half past one, p. m.

Adjourned to meet at their Hall Thursday next, at half past one o'clock, when it is expected there will be a full attendance of the business men of Dayton.

JOHN HARRIS, Pres't. pro. tem.
D. C. RANCO, Sec'y.

Douglas in the 4th District.

The Greenville Democrat of this week says, the Convention to appoint Delegates for the Fourth Congressional District to the Charleston Convention, assembled at Wapakoneta, on Thursday, December 1st. Judge Thompson, of Sidney, presided. Judge Ben. F. Metcalf, of Allen county, and Joshua Townsend, Esq., Sheriff of Darke county, were chosen Delegates, and S. B. Walker, Esq., of Shelby county, Elector. Strong resolutions in favor of Hon.
Stephen A. Douglas were passed, and the delegates were required to pledge themselves to support him in the Charleston Convention.

Consent.—The omission of these words in one of the resolutions passed by the District Convention at Hamilton, on Thursday, as published in yesterday's Empire, entirely changed the sense of it. Copies of our paper sent to other journals, were corrected by interpolation, and the proper correction in type was made for our weekly paper. We republish the resolution today, as corrected by copy:

Resolved, That in citizens of the United States we recognize no distinction between those who are native born and those who are naturalized, and that we are unalterably opposed to any change in the naturalization laws as they now stand.

In publishing the names of the delegates yesterday to the State Convention we accidentally omitted that of Daniel Shull and Dr. Egger. The delegation stands:

DELEGATES.—B. M. Ayres, S. B. Smith, Joe Wenger, Z. Outwot, W. J. James, A. Clay, W.
H. Bellville, Wm. Ramsey and D. Shull.

ALTERNATES.—Wm. Van Doren, J. A. Dickey, H. Elliott, Dr. J. D. Kemp, E. Liggett, Wm. Stead, Col. S. M. Henry, Wm. Moore and Dr. W. Egger.

The telegraph informs us that John Brown was executed at a quarter past 11 o'clock yesterday. He made no remarks on the scaffold; but it is said he has prepared a "lengthy address," which may be published.
It strikes us that in the arrangements for hanging the old man, the Government acted very silly. With two thousand soldiers in the neighborhood of the gallows, the government could have afforded to admit some friends of Brown, and a score of news reporters to hear what the old man desired to say on the verge of the grave, and to witness the execution. The admission of such a company to the vicinity of the gallows would have done no possible harm, but would probably have been gratifying to Brown, and satisfactory to the people throughout the country.

We regret to learn from the Xenia News of this week, that its editor J. Whitelaw Reid, Esq., has been required, on account of ill health and at the direction of his physicians, to give up his editorial labors for a time, and leave town, to seek for recovery in rest and recreation. During Mr. Reid's absence, which it is hoped will be for but a few weeks, we are promised that his place will be filled by experienced writers. The present number of the News is evidence of the good faith of the promise.

As our neighbor of the Fireman's Gazette has not "betrayed upon his brow" of late work, at the Post Office, but has rather failed to reach his first mark, and as we fear that he would not be able to say anything in addition to what we have already said, he will please excuse us for not following his lead, and making a failure also. Besides, we don't think the subject calls for anything further.

The prospectus of the New York Ledger, the great family paper, will be found in another column. It is scarcely necessary to say that the Ledger is by far the most popular family paper in the country, having a circulation of over four hundred thousand copies. It is always characterized by a high moral tone, and, as will be seen by reference to its advertisements, employs more eminent contributors than any other paper in the world.

FIXING FOR THE HOLIDAYS.—It may be interesting to the old folks and young folks who have for so long visited and made their holiday purchases at the old stand of Old Ohmer, corner of Main and 2d sts., to know that Mr. Felix, who is now the dispenser of good things at that place, has already commenced in earnest to fix up for the holiday season. He will be prepared to supply all creation with good things forthwith. His Oyster Saloons, both for gentlemen and ladies are now in complete trim, and always comfortable for the reception of guests. Call and see the old place.

ANOTHER VICTIM.—The Harrisburg Telegraph of Monday, just notices the death of another victim from intemperance: "This morning, between one and two o'clock, Mr. John O.
Rockafellow, a gentleman well known in this community, while laboring under an attack of mania, jumped through his chamber window on the third story of the State Capital Hotel, and falling on the brick pavement below, was almost instantly killed."

The Cincinnati Enquirer, the Commercial, and the Gazette, had each a reporter de-patched toward Charleston. They are posted as to what happened along the road, and about general matters in the vicinity, but they failed to get hold of any thing really interesting in the immediate vicinity of the gallows.

Luxurion.—Brandenburg & Co. have received a supply of choice oysters, fresh fish, apples, lemons, and a large quantity of other fixings too good to talk about, but good enough for anybody to eat. Call and get a supply this evening when on the way home.

We have received from John L. Kiefer, Esq., our usual bundle of California papers, for which he has our thanks.

The Miami and Mad River are "on a high." The Miami is yet on the rise, but will not probably get much higher.

we don't outstage the cause of journalism by the monstrous hypothesis.

The writer of the above paragraph could not, certainly, have exchanged with the New Albu-

The "interim" of the Xenia News declines for that paper that it is "forment" a Governor Chase. If we can glean any thing of its leaning from what little it has published touching the matter, we can only conclude that its preference is in another direction. Is the News for Chase in preference to any other distinguished Republican named for promotion?

It is almost every election precinct in the State of Ohio, where the Democracy have assembled in primary meetings, the feeling for Douglas for the Presidential nomination has been almost unanimous. We doubt whether the people—particularly the young men—were ever before more strongly enlisted in favor of any man for the Presidential nomination, if we may except Gen. Jackson. These evidences cannot be smothered, and it will not do to disregard them.

tionable
